Kuala Lumpur – Roads leading to Padang Merbok will be partially closed on Sunday 8 January 2017 between 6:50am and 9:30am for the safety of MPI Generali Run 2017 participants.

The sixth annual community run of MPI Generali Insurans Berhad that kickstarts the local running calendar will have two routes: 10km Competitive Run and 5km Fun Run starting from Padang Merbok and passing through Jalan Sultan Salahuddin, Jalan Parlimen, Jalan Tun Ismail, Jalan Tunku and Jalan Berjasa.

Project Leader Jayne Liew commented: "We are looking forward to seeing new and seasoned runners on 8 January 2017 and safety for our participants is very important to us."

All routes will have traffic cones and clearly marked zones that runners must run within. As an extra measure, we are deploying route marshals to help in managing the road traffic. We have also enlisted the traffic police's assistance."

Participants are encouraged to get dropped off at a drop-off point at Jalan Parlimen, carpool or take public transportation (Masjid Jamek or Sultan Ismail train station) to get to the venue. For those who choose the carpooling option, please note that Padang Merbok Car Park will not be available for parking.
